NOTES FROM THE PASTOR:

We live in a world, as last Sunday’s sermon shared, which is confusing and often filled with a lot of stress and anxiety. Stress has the ability to paralyze our lives in many ways, emotionally, mentally, physically and even spiritually. I love the words of the author Max Lucado who once said, “Your anxiety decreases as your understanding of God your Father increases.” That is so true!

As we go about our lives, let us try to turn our worries into prayers while remembering these words of Phillippians 4:6-7: “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (nkjv).

PRAYER UPDATES/REQUESTS:

Prayers for Mitzie Kimball who is being treated for gastrointestinal problems.

Marolyn and Ken Sparks are now home from Canada. Continued prayers for Marolyn as she begins rehab for her hip and leg.

Prayers for Sarah Pace who is having anemia and other pregnancy related issues.

Continued prayers for all the members and families, friends and relatives on our Prayer Page (attached).

OCTOBER IS CLERGY APPRECIATION MONTH – As a church family, we wish to honor our Pastors and their families today. Because they are “our pastors” sometimes we lose sight that they should have time for their family, too. Help us show thanks to our ministers by a kind word, a handshake, or a simple “thank you.”

An honorarium has been given in their names to the Board of Cooperative Ministries for Hurricane Relief.

Reverend Dr. David, Jr. and Lee Marcus

Reverend Roger and Mitzie Kimball
